SkyWest Airlines Announces its First Vice President of InFlight, Sonya Wolford

For Immediate Release

ST. GEORGE, Utah, November 20, 2002 – SkyWest Airlines, a subsidiary of SkyWest, Inc. (NASDAQ: SKYW) is pleased to announce the promotion of Sonya Wolford to Vice President – InFlight. Sonya is the tenth vice president at SkyWest and will be based at the airlines' headquarters in St. George, Utah.

Sonya has been with SkyWest since July of 1995. She began working as a flight attendant and flew for 11 months. Sonya then jumped into management as the Manager – InFlight Training. In 1997, the additional responsibilities of all SkyWest InFlight recruitment were added to her list of duties. Sonya became the Director – InFlight Services and Recruitment in 2000, and in 2001, was promoted to Senior Director - InFlight.

Sonya will be the first Vice President of InFlight in the 30 year history of SkyWest. Sonya will continue to lead an increasingly growing InFlight team which currently consists of more than 700 flight attendants.

“SkyWest is in a rapid growth phase and in order to maintain a quality product, we need exceptional people,” said Ron Reber, Chief Operating Officer. “Our InFlight group has always been an industry leader. Under Sonya’s direction we expect continued excellence in the program.”

Sonya currently lives in Draper, Utah with her husband Bob and their two sons.

SkyWest Airlines is the nation's largest independently operated regional carrier and recently celebrated their 30-Year Anniversary. In January, they were named Regional Airline of the Year by Air Transport World. SkyWest Airlines operates as United Express and Delta Connection under marketing agreements with United Airlines and Delta Air Lines, respectively. SkyWest serves 87 cities with more than 1,000 daily flights in the United States and Canada.
