Delta Connection Announces Increased Service Between Sun Valley and Salt Lake City

For Immediate Release

St. George, UT, June 15, 2005 -- SkyWest Airlines (Nasdaq: SKYW) is pleased to announce increased service between Sun Valley, Idaho and Salt Lake City for the 2005 Summer season.

This is the second increase in service between the two Intermountain West cities this year. Sun Valley travelers will enjoy a flexible flight schedule with more convenient departure times to better suit the summer season. In all, travelers can choose from 11 daily departures virtually every hour from 7:00 am until 9:00 pm.

The new schedule, already in effect, is as follows (boldface indicates new flights):

Steven Hart, SkyWest Vice President of Market Development, said, "The new additions will make access to and from Sun Valley more convenient than ever. With eleven daily round trips, connections to and from Delta flights worldwide will require minimal layover time in Salt Lake City and more time to spend in the Wood River Valley."

Equipped with 26 employees with a combined 105 years of airline service experience, the SkyWest Sun Valley station has been serving passengers for nearly 15 years.

SkyWest Airlines was named the Number One On-Time Mainland Airline in the United States by the Department of Transportation for 2004, a year in which they carried 13.4 million passengers. System-wide, SkyWest has approximately 8,500 employees and serves a total of 113 cities in 31 states and three Canadian provinces with more than 1,500 daily departures.
