

Contact: Corporate Communications
435.634.3545 / 435.634.3000

SkyWest Magazine Features Crescent City, California in its United Express July/August Edition

For Immediate Release

St. George, UT, July 2, 2007 – SkyWest Magazine, the in-flight publication for SkyWest Airlines, is featuring Crescent City, California as part of its United Express July/August edition.

Just a few miles east of the redwoods and about 20 miles south of Oregon, Crescent City offers visitors a moderate climate and a mythical array of coastal views, wild rivers and cultural diversity.

SkyWest began service to Crescent City in 1998 as a way to connect passengers to a worldwide network of flights through United's San Francisco hub. SkyWest also serves Crescent City to show the world what this serene town has to offer, including a pristine artistic community.

Each bimonthly edition of SkyWest Magazine features stories and photographs from SkyWest cities known as some of the most renowned destinations in the world. The full-color SkyWest Magazine article will begin its two-month run on July 1 and will reach more than a million passengers throughout the United States and Canada.

SkyWest Magazine Editor, Colleen Birch Maile, is available for comment at 208.333.9990 or via e-mail at colleen@gopublicationsinc.com.

Additional information about SkyWest magazine is accessible through www.skywestmagazine.com. This press release and other information regarding SkyWest Airlines, a wholly owned subsidiary of SkyWest, Inc. (NASDAQ: SKYW), can be accessed online at www.skywest.com/skywest/.

(# # #)