“The addition of a third daily flight to San Francisco offers our customers more of what they’re looking for: convenience, connections and choice,” said Greg Kaldahl, United’s vice president of resource planning. “With this additional round-trip and service to three United markets, our customers will have more access to United’s global network than ever before.”

In addition to providing service to and from San Francisco, United Express also offers daily flights to and from Denver International Airport (DEN) and Portland International Airport (PDX), making the Roberts Field-Redmond Municipal Airport the area’s best portal for air travel throughout the U.S. and the world.

Passengers can purchase tickets for the new flights starting Saturday, July 3, 2010. Tickets for all SkyWest-operated United Express flights may be purchased online at www.united.com or by calling United Airlines Reservations at 1-800-UNITED1 (1-800-864-8331).
