Fly United, Take Advantage of Affordable Flights to LA

For Immediate Release

San Luis Obispo, Calif., July 20, 2010 – United Airlines is pleased to announce that passengers have even more affordable options when traveling to Los Angeles on United Express flights, operated by SkyWest Airlines. Customers traveling using San Luis Obispo County Regional Airport will also enjoy the convenience of six daily non-stop flights to Los Angeles International Airport.

“Community support of the airport is tremendous. We are excited to make flying locally even more affordable,” said Greg Kaldahl, United’s vice president of network planning.

From surfing to shopping you’ll find more than enough to do to occupy your time in sunny Los Angeles. United customers also have one-stop access to nearly 200 daily departures to points throughout North America, Europe, Asia and Australia through United’s Los Angeles hub. Book today at www.united.com.
