Summer Travel from Springfield is More Affordable With United

For Immediate Release

Springfield, Illinois June 29, 2010 – United Airlines is excited to announce that you can fly for less this summer on United Express flights, operated by SkyWest Airlines, from Springfield, Ill. to Chicago. Our summer fares will allow more people to take advantage of economical summer trips. Planning a vacation through the Abraham Lincoln Capital Airport also gives travelers a chance to check out the updated facilities.

“Over the last several months we have been able to dramatically increase flights out of Springfield as the community has taken advantage of our reliable service,” said Mike Thompson, SkyWest’s vice president of market development.

Passengers have access to more than 200 domestic and international destinations through United’s Chicago hub. Make your booking today at www.united.com for nonstop service to world renowned architecture, fine dining and sporting events in the Windy City and beyond.
